When I heard the news about the change, I asked spirit for a sign and to be upgraded. Today when I received the news and went to the site and read that it was an exclusive NEW NILE CRUISE and that THE NAME OF THE BOAT - FARAH means HAPPINESS AND JOY in Arabic. I cried and giggled with joy. When I saw they have a Star Named after the Cruise, and a Telescope located on the sun-deck so we could look at the stars, I knew this was the special sign and a wonderful gift for us.

This Nile Boat is amazing it has handmade Egyptian cotton sheets with your choice of pillows ranging from soft, delicate, orthopedic, and spongy or a simple pillow. They have a fabulous kitchen with lots of vegetarian choices. All Cabins are equipped with LCD TV, mini bar, private safe box, internet connection, a private bathroom with bathtub and hair dryers. There is a Gymnasium, Steam & Sauna free of charge. Massage room with different choices with reasonable fees, wireless Internet connection in all the outlets free of charge and laundry facilities.

We will be departing a day early and the new dates are March 11-23 for the Main program and March 23-27 for the option to Hurgada. For those going to option Abu Simbel we will make the arrangements for the morning of March 17th. See new itinerary below.

The new itinerary works well. Instead of going from Aswan to Cairo remembering the ancient mystery school wisdoms, we will fly directly to Luxor as MASTERS. The message I have been given is that we are already masters of our fate and it is time to come together to envision and create new possibilities for ourselves and the world around us. On this journey we will be both be giving and receiving the highest divine energies that are available both from within us and within each Temple sites. At our private time inside the great pyramid on Spring Equinox we will connect with the divine light that pours forth from the Great Central Sun and radiate our love to the world.

I am working of air to Egypt; please let me know this week if you will be joining us.

EGYPT STARGATE - SPRING EQUINOX

You are invited to embark on a profound transformational journey to integrate and embody ancient wisdom as we experience a living book of miracles.

This journey was divinely guided to be in Egypt for Spring Equinox - a time of new beginning, renewal and activation. On this journey you will be filled with amazing experiences that will stir your soul at its deepest level.

We will activate our Divine Mastery through discovery, meditations, group experiences and sacred moments of contemplation all woven together with joy. We will follow our divine connection to the heart of the galactic center and on the Spring Equinox have a Heart Activation ceremony inside the Great Pyramid.

Come Home to Egypt for a once in a lifetime experience that will change your life forever. When Egypt calls you home you will know. Remember there is always a guiding divine hand preparing the way for you.

"We are in the time of prophecies, massive changes and global transformation. It is also a time of new beginnings with tremendous opportunities. We are developing a heightened spiritual perspective and a compassion heart that can transform our world through intuition, intention, conscious choices and positive action. New divine energies are available for us as we approach the Shift of the Ages. Today many people are learning to trust the unknown and follow synchronicity or events that bring us insights and information when needed. We are also learning to trust ourselves and the divine forces of light within that are guiding us. The time is NOW to claim our Divine Mastery and come together to work with others to envision and create the world we dream of. This is the time we have waited for and we are the ones to make it happen!"

STARGATE EGYPT – STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

Egypt is a multi-dimensional Stargate. It is a portal of high energy located on a major earth grid, where the veils between the dimensions are thin and communication with the divine is heightened. Egypt is also at the heart of the enduring mysteries. It is known as the land where alchemy and healing merged into a divine process of initiation that transformed humans into illuminated beings.

Egypt, older than recorded time, is a place where myth and facts are interwoven together into a rich legacy of mystery and alchemy. The Ancient Ones created a harmonious cosmology that reflected a conscious spiritual reality, based on direct knowingness of the natural laws of the Universe. They created sacred physical structures that mimic the harmonic golden ratio found in nature to maintain universal harmony

The Ancient Ones designed Stargates at key locations by reproducing the stars in the constellations upon the earth and created Pyramids and Temples as a Stairway back home to Heaven. At all sacred places there is energy from the rays of the sun, moon and certain stars. At certain times of the year like the Full Moon, Eclipses, Equinox and Solstices greater energies is available. These Galactic alignments open the Stargates. The more conscious and receptive we are the more we can receive, assimilate and utilize the energy and information. We are now being asked to be Conscious Participants and our attention are being called to the heavens for a reason. As Above, So Below, As Below so Above, As Within, So Without, reminds us of the importance of our connection with the Celestial Realms.

Many of the Temples still standing are built over ruins of earlier temples along ley lines and magnetic grids. Ancient Egyptians aligned their pyramids and temples, or Libraries in Stone with the celestial horizon and stars and placed them on specific Earth grids to enter into comic portals beyond time and space. They went beyond beliefs to become beings of light to experience universal wisdom directly from the source. We will explore their wisdom and their understanding of nature as it is reflected in their art, architecture and hieroglyphics.

The Temples, Statues, Pyramids and the Sphinx are infused with divine powers and are alive and energetically active. The ancient ones infused their creations with the energetic frequencies that represented the essence of what they were creating. One of the functions of the Temples was to serves as a portal where the boundaries of the two worlds - human and divine could meet. Using the Temples as a catalyst for our inner work we will bridge the inner and outer worlds and deepen our understanding of the "Great Mysteries" within our body and soul.

Egyptian Temples are Light filled living books in stone. Egypt holds the energetic keys to galactic wisdom that enables us to remember our divine origins. The Ancients Ones decoded the knowledge contained in "LIGHT". Each site offers unique wave frequencies and stellar codes for awakening. As we interact with these sacred places we connect with subtle levels of our consciousness enabling us to decode the wisdom they have left us. There message was to "Be the Illumined one" with an illumined Mind that shines like a Radiant Star. Our vision is to activate the heart of truth and embody a new state of being, beyond duality by living in the Light of the Divine.

Egypt is calling you home!

Soon you see and feel how the ancient Egyptian initiates, over the course of thousands of years built impressive Temples and Pyramids in stone to last into the future. They anchored light and divine knowledge from the universal source in all into their monuments. They created sacred places with spiritual technology and hide their ancient knowledge for a future time. They knew that this time would come and souls would feel an intense urge to search for something that was lost, or begin to remember more of who they really were and would journey far and wide to discover the truth that was left for them.

With great joy we will experience Egypt together. There will be time for integration, camel rides, shopping and relaxing by the pool. We will experience the first Dawn of Spring Equinox with our private time at the Paws of the Sphinx and inside the Kings Chamber of the Great Pyramid. We will align our heart and soul with Universal Love. Join us as we walk in the footsteps of the Ancient Ones and experience living light-filled temples that still resonate with profound energies. If it is your heart's desire to join us I will do all I can to make this dream come true. The Doorway are open COME JOIN US.
